

RESEARCH MANAGER

GATSBY AFRICA

Are you an experienced researcher who can translate findings into compelling stories for different audiences? Are you passionate about debates and theories around how countries can develop economically? Would you like to use your skills and experience to help guide organisations looking to benefit millions of poor people across East Africa?

Gatsby Africa is recruiting a Research Manager. The successful candidate will conduct research and manage research contracts, finding ways to ensure the results reach internal and external audiences. They will seek out opportunities to collaborate with other organisations as part of a role that offers a great deal of flexibility and allows for independent working and creative thinking.

To learn more about this opportunity and how to apply, please download the Candidate Pack by visiting www.gatsby.org.uk/RM. We particularly welcome applications from female candidates, East African nationals, and people with experience of working in East Africa.

Gatsby Africa is an equal opportunities employer.
